

Press Immediate Release

Energy Theater Celebrates Halloween

“Monstrous Laughter Halloween Special”

EnergyTheater.org

“Monstrous Laughter Halloween Special”
& The Punk Band

“The Egg Queen”

Benefit for Unity Somerville, $10 suggested donation

Walter Ness will demonstrate how you can consciously switch from a friendly easy-going personality to one that is more reserved. Doing this consciously is Spooky!

The comedic performance will be followed by the punk rock band, “The Egg Queen” playing music for your dancing pleasure. Come dressed up as your favorite Halloween monstrous personality and be ready to dance!

Donation, $10 For more information, see www.EnergyTheater.org

Walter Ness, director of Energy Theater, presents a performance that’s designed to make Halloween a tremendous laughter experience. It will take place at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, October 25, at Unity Church of Somerville, 6 William Street, Somerville (corner of College Ave., 3 blocks from Davis Sq.).

Some of the skits will showcase “Interview with the French Vampire,” “The Invisible Man and Woman” in their natural habitat, “Zombie Boot Camp” and more.

Performers include Tom Glannon, reading horror-ific poetry, musician Sarah Takagi, who always surprises with her insights into personal awareness and and humorous beauty-consultant Cecilia Bennett..

This show will also include insights into how to be friendly or scary in a skit called, “Insights into Super Creativity and Interactive Mindfulness.

This show will also include a demonstration of how to consciously shift your mental and emotional state to be either friendly or scary.